REQUIREMENTS FOR DECLARING THE MAJOR:
Completion of the following 2 courses with a combined GPA of 2.50 (All courses must be taken for a letter grade).

- Psychology 1
- Psychology 41

OR a 2.00 GPA in a minimum of 3 upper division Psychology courses

PREPARATORY Subject Matter: 40-54 Units

- Psychology 1 or 1Y
- Psychology 41
- Statistics 13 (13V) or 100 or Psychology 12Y
- Biological Sciences 2A OR 2B OR Biological Sciences 10 (10V) AND one of:
  - ANT 1, MCB 10, or NPB 10 (3)

DEPTH Subject Matter: 50-55 Units

1. Take TWO courses from CORE A:
2. Take TWO courses from CORE B:
3. Take ONE course from CORE C or CORE D:
4. Complete PSC 103A and either PSC 103B or 104:
5. PSC ELECTIVES: Take 10-13 units of elective courses:

   What counts as a PSC Elective?
   - Any upper division PSC class you have not already taken. This includes classes in the CORE Groups or any PSC course listed in the General Catalog.
   - Any of the courses listed on the back of this sheet.
   - PSC 192 (6 units max), PSC 194HA/B, PSC 198, PSC 199, PSC 197T.

6. UPPER DIVISION EMPHASIS: 8 units

PSYCHOLOGY CORE GROUPS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Core Group A: Perception, Cognition, &amp; Cognitive Neuroscience</th>
<th>Core Group B: Psychobiology</th>
<th>Core Group C: Social/Personality</th>
<th>Core Group D: Developmental</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>100/100Y: Cognitive Psychology</td>
<td>101: Intro to Biological Psych</td>
<td>151: Social Psychology</td>
<td>140 (HDE 100A or 100B*): Dev Psych</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>135: Cognitive Neuroscience</td>
<td>124: Comparative Neuroanatomy</td>
<td>165: Clinical Psychology</td>
<td>146: Development of Memory</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>139: Advanced Cognitive Neuro.</td>
<td>126: Health Psychology</td>
<td></td>
<td>*Students who have completed HDE 100A or B prior to PSC 140 will receive 2 units of credit for PSC 140.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note: PSC 103A and PSC 103B (Statistical Analysis of Psych Data) are strongly recommended for graduate school in Psychology.